Lot A

Goffin's Cockatoo Donation to the Amateur Committee

Consignor
Ranger Creek Farms

If you are looking for a bird with personality the Goffin's Cockatoo might just be the bird for you. Goffin's Cockatoos are fun-loving parrots who are born entertainers. They are clever, loving, curious, playful and energetic. Like most cockatoos the Goffin's are comical, and snuggly. The plumage of the Goffin's Cockatoo is a beautiful white with a hint of pale pink and soft yellow. It is the smallest of all the Cockatoos, measuring only 12.5 inches at maturity, making it the perfect size for anyone and is also a great choice for families since they are usually good with children. This little cockatoo has been hand fed from day one. He comes ready to take home and love, complete with a cage and accessories. All proceeds benefit the Amateur Fund.

A special thanks to Mark and Suzy Wilson of Ranger Creek Farms for donating this exotic animal.

Bees Little Honey

Consignor
JLT

Bees Little Honey was shown just a short while. As a weanling she did very well and was in the Top Five at Regionals and Top Ten at the World Show. As a yearling she was shown two times and the owner decided he was getting out of the business, so she wasn't shown any more. She is a pretty filly with a great future ahead for showing. Her sire is a beautiful sorrel pinto by Cross Countrys Call Me Sir that was never shown but has sired some beautiful foals.
